11. Use of adhesive stamps. - The following instruments may be stamped with adhesive stamps, namely,-

- (a) Instruments chargeable with a duty not exceeding twenty paise except parts of bills of exchange payable otherwise than on demand and drawn in sets;
- (b) bills of exchange drawn or made out of India and promissory notes so drawn or made;
- (c) entry as an advocate on the roll of a High Court;
- (d) notarial acts; and
- (e) transfers by endorsement of shares in any incorporated company or other body corporate.

12. Cancellation of adhesive stamps. -

- (1) (a) Whoever affixes any adhesive stamp to any instrument chargeable with duty which has been executed by any person shall, when affixing such stamp, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again;
- (b) Whoever executes any instrument on any paper bearing an adhesive stamp shall, at the time of execution, unless such stamps have been already cancelled in the manner aforesaid, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again.
- (2) Any instrument bearing an adhesive stamp which has not been cancelled so that it cannot be used again, shall, so far as such stamp is concerned, be deemed to be unstamped.
- (3) The person required by sub-section (1) to cancel an adhesive stamp may cancel it by writing on or across the stamp his name or initials or the name or initials of his firm with the true date of his so writing, or in any other effectual manner.

13. Instruments stamped with impressed stamps how to be written- Every instrument written upon paper stamped with an impressed stamp shall be written in such manner that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument and cannot be used for or applied to any other instrument.

Explanation 1-Where two or more sheets of paper stamped with impressed stamps are used to make up the amount of duty chargeable in respect of any instrument, either a portion of such instrument shall be written on each sheet so used, or the sheet on which no such portion is written shall be signed by the executant or one of the Executants, with an endorsement indicating that the sheet is attached to another sheet on which the instrument is written.

Explanation 2-Where a single sheet of paper, not being paper bearing an impressed hundi-stamp, is insufficient to admit the entire instrument being written on the side of the paper which bears the stamp so much plain paper may be sub-joint thereto as may be necessary for completing the writing of such instrument, provided that in every such case, a substantial part of the instrument is written on the sheet which bears the stamp before any part is written on the plain papers sub-joined.

14. Only one instrument to be on same stamp- No second instrument chargeable with duty shall be written upon a piece of stamped paper upon which an instrument chargeable with duty has already been written;

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any endorsement which is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty being made upon any instrument for the purpose of transferring any right created or evidenced thereby, or of acknowledging the receipt of any money or goods the payment or delivery of which is secured thereby.

15. Instrument written contrary to section 13 or 14 deemed unstamped - Every instrument written in contravention of section 13 or section 14 shall be deemed to be not duly stamped.

16. Denoting duty- Where duty with which an instrument is chargeable, or its exemption from duty, depends in any manner upon the duty actually paid in respect of another instrument, the payment of such last mentioned duty shall, if application is made in writing to the Collector for the purpose, and on production of both the instruments, be denoted upon such first mentioned instrument, by endorsement under the hand of the Collector or in such other manner, if any, as the State Government may by the rule prescribe.

C. Of the time of stamping instrument

17. Instruments executed in the State- All instrument chargeable with duty and executed by any person in the State shall be stamped before or at the time of execution or immediately thereafter on the next working day following the day of execution.

18. Instruments other than bills and notes executed out of State-

(1) Every instrument chargeable with duty executed out of the State and not being a bill of exchange, or promissory note, may be stamped within three months after it has been first received in the State.

(2) Where any such instrument cannot, with reference to the description of stamp prescribed therefore, be duly stamped by a private person, it may be taken within the said period of three months to the Collector, who shall stamp the same, in such manner as the State Government may by rule prescribe, with a stamp of such value as the person so taking such instrument may require and pay for.

19. Bill and notes drawn out of India- the first holder in the State of any bill of exchange, payable otherwise than on demand or promissory note drawn or made out of India shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or payment, or endorses, transfers or otherwise negotiates the same in the State, affix thereto the proper stamp and cancel the same:

Provided that-

(a) if, at the time any such bill of exchange or note comes into the hands of any holder thereof in the State, the proper adhesive stamp is affixed thereto and cancelled in the manner prescribed under section 12 and such holder has no reasons to believe that such stamp was affixed or cancelled otherwise than by the person and at the time required by this Act, such stamp shall, so far as relates to such holder, be deemed to have been duly affixed and cancelled;

(b) nothing contained in this proviso shall relieve any person from any penalty incurred by him for omitting to affix or cancel a stamp.

20. Payment of duty on certain instrument liable to increased duty in the State of Rajasthan- When any instrument has become chargeable in any part of India other than the State of Rajasthan with duty under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (Act No. 2 of 1899) or under any other law for the time being in force in such part and thereafter becomes chargeable with a higher rate of duty in the State of Rajasthan under this Act,-

- (i) the amount of duty chargeable on such instrument shall be the amount chargeable on it under this Act less the amount of duty, if any, already paid on it in India; and
- (ii) in addition to the stamps, if any, already affixed thereto, such instrument shall be stamped with the stamp necessary for the payment of the amount of duty chargeable on it under clause (i) in the same manner and at the same time and by the same person as though such instrument were an instrument received in this State for the first time, when it became chargeable with the higher duty.

21. Payment of difference of duty on copies of instruments registered out of the State- (1) Where any instrument is registered in any part of India other than the State of Rajasthan and such instrument relates, wholly or partly to any property situate in the State of Rajasthan, the copy of such instrument shall, when received in the State of Rajasthan under the Registration Act, 1908 (Act No. 16 of 1908), be liable to be charged with the difference of duty as on the original instrument.

(2) The difference of duty shall be calculated having regard to, the extent of property situated in the State of Rajasthan and the proportionate consideration or market value of such extent of property.

(3) The party liable to pay duty on the original instrument shall upon receipt of notice from the registering officer, pay the difference of duty within the time allowed by such registering officer.

(4) Where deficiency in duty paid is noticed from the copy of any instrument, the Collector may suo-moto or on a reference from any court or any registering officer, require the production of the original instrument before him within the period specified by him for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the adequacy of the duty paid thereon, and the instrument so produced before the Collector, shall be deemed to have produced or come before him in the performance of his functions and the provisions of sections 35 and 51 shall, mutatis mutandis apply.

(5) In case the original instrument is not produced within the period specified by the Collector, he may require the payment of deficit duty, if any, together with penalty under section 44 on the copy of the instrument, within such time as may be prescribed.

D. Of Valuation for duty

22. Conversion of amount expressed in foreign currencies-

(1) Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any money expressed in any currency other than that of India, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of India according to the current rate of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.

(2) The rate of exchange for conversion of British or any foreign currency into the currency of India, as may be prescribed by the Central Government, under sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (Act No. 2 of 1899), for the purposes of calculating stamp duty, shall be deemed to be the current rate of exchange for the purposes of sub-section (1).

23. Stock and marketable securities how to be valued- Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable or other security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price or the value thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

24. Effect of statement of rate of exchange or average price- Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it shall, so far as regards the subject matter of such statement, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped.

25. Instruments reserving interest- Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable had no mention of interest been made therein.

26. Certain instruments connected with mortgages of marketable securities to be chargeable as agreements-

(1) Where an instrument (not being promissory note or bill of exchange),-

(a) is given upon the occasion of the deposit of any marketable security by way of security for money advanced or to be advanced by way of loan, or for an existing or future debt, or

(b) makes redeemable or qualifies a duly stamped transfer, intended as a security, of any marketable security, it shall be chargeable with duty as if it were an agreement or memorandum of an agreement chargeable with duty under Article-5(c) of the Schedule.

(2) A release or discharge of any such instrument shall only be chargeable with the like duty.

27. How transfer in consideration of debt, or, subject to future payment, etc., to be charged- Where any property is transferred to any person in consideration, wholly or in part, of any debt due to him, or subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer of any money or stock, whether being or constituting a charge or encumbrance upon the property or not, such debt, money or stock is to be deemed the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect where of the transfer is chargeable with ad valorem duty:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any such certificate of sale as is mentioned in Article 17 of the schedule.

Explanation- In the case of a sale of property subject to a mortgage or other encumbrance, any unpaid mortgage money or money charged together with the interest, if any, due on the same, shall be deemed to be part of the consideration for the sale:

Provided that, where property subject to a mortgage is transferred to the mortgagee, he shall be entitled to deduct from the duty payable on the transfer the amount of any duty already paid in respect of the mortgage.

28. Valuation in case of annuity, etc.- Where an instrument is executed to secure the payment of an annuity or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount secured by such instrument or the consideration for such conveyance, as the case may be, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be,-

(a) Where the sum is payable for the definite period so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained such total amount;

(b) Where the sum is payable in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance, the total amount which, according to the terms of such instrument or conveyance, will or may be payable during the period of twenty years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due; and

(c) Where the sum is payable for an indefinite time terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance the maximum amount which will or may be payable as aforesaid during the period of twelve years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due.

29. Stamps duty where value of subject matter is indeterminate- Where the amount or value of the subject matter of any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty, cannot be, or, in the case of an instrument executed before the commencement of this

Act, could not have been, ascertained at the date of its execution or first execution, nothing shall be claimable under such instrument more than the highest amount or value for which, if stated in an instrument of the same description, the stamp actually used would, at the date of such execution, have been sufficient:

Provided that, in the case of the lease of a mine in which royalty or a share of the produce is received as the rent or part of the rent, it shall be sufficient to have estimated such royalty or the value of such share, for the purpose of stamp duty,-

- (a) when the lease has been granted by or on behalf of the Government, at such amount or value as the Collector may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, have estimated as likely to be payable by way of royalty or share to the Government under the lease, or
- (b) when the lease has been granted by any other person, at twenty thousand rupees a year; and the whole amount of such royalty or share, whatever it may be, shall be claimable under such lease:

Provided further that, where proceedings have been taken in respect of an instrument under section 35 or 45, the amount certified by the Collector shall be deemed to be the stamp actually used at the date of execution.

30. Facts affecting duty to be set forth in instruments-(1)The consideration, if any, and all other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of any instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, shall be fully and truly set forth therein.

- (2) In the case of instruments relating to immovable property chargeable with an ad valorem duty on the market value of the property, the instrument shall fully and truly set forth the land revenue in the case of revenue paying land, the annual rental or gross assets, if any, in the case of other immovable property, the local rates, municipal or other taxes, if any, to which such property may be subject, and any other particulars which may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

31. Direction as to duty in case of certain conveyances-

- (1) Where any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole, and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts by different instruments, the consideration shall be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit, provided that a distinct consideration for each separate part is set forth in the conveyance relating thereto and such conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.
- (2) Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole, by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, is conveyed in parts by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased, for distinct parts of the consideration, the conveyance of each separate part shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the distinct part of the consideration therein specified.
- (3) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contract to sell the same to any other person and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the sub-purchaser.
- (4) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the whole, or any part thereof, to any other person or persons and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different person in parts, the conveyance of each part sold to a sub-purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the consideration paid by such sub-purchaser, without, regard to the amount or value of the original consideration; and the conveyance of the residue, if any, of such property to the original purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the excess of the original consideration over the aggregate of the consideration paid by the sub-purchasers:

Provided that the duty on such last-mentioned conveyance shall in no case be less than ten rupees.

- (5) Where a sub-purchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration paid by him and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be after-wards made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with a duty equal to that which would be chargeable on a conveyance for the consideration obtained by such original seller, or where such duty would exceed fifty rupees, with a duty of fifty rupees.

Explanation- For the purpose of this section, the consideration with respect to an instrument shall, where it relates to chargeability of ad valorem duty, be deemed to be the market value of the property.

CHAPTER - III

Adjudication as to Stamps

- 35. Adjudication as to proper stamp - (1) When any instrument, whether executed or not and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty, if any, with which it is chargeable,¹[and pays a fee of five hundred rupees], the Collector shall determine the duty, if any, with which in his judgment, the instrument is chargeable.
- (2) For this purpose the Collector may require to be furnished with ²[a true copy or] an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such ³[true copy or] abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly :

Provided that,-

- (a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and
- (b) every person by whom any such evidence is furnished shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates, is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this ³Inserted by the Raj. Finance Act, 2013 (Act No. 12 of 2013) (w.e.f. 10.04.2013).

Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

- (3) Where the Collector has reason to believe that the market value of the property has not been truly set forth in the instrument brought to him for determining the duty under sub-section(1) he may, after such inquiry as he may deem proper and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person bringing the instrument, determine the market value of such property for the purpose of duty.

Determination of duty and Procedure thereon

36. Certificate by Collector--

- (1) When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 35 is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and
- (a) The Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or
 - (b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 35, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid, the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable, has been paid.
- (2) When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in the manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable.
- ¹(2A) When an executed instrument brought to the Collector under section 35 is, in his opinion, one of the descriptions chargeable with duty and the duty determined by him exceeds the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, he shall require the payment of the balance amount within reasonable time as may be allowed by him and on payment of such amount the Collector shall certify by endorsement that the full duty (stating the amount), with which it is chargeable, has been paid.

- (3) Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped :

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize the Collector to endorse any instrument chargeable with a duty not exceeding ten paise or any bill of exchange or promissory note, when brought to him, after the drawing or execution thereof, on paper not duly stamped.

Provided further that:

- (a) any instrument executed or first executed in the State and brought to the Collector within one month of its execution or first execution, as the case may be; or
- (b) any instrument executed or first executed out of State and brought to the Collector within three months after it has been first received in the State;

shall be chargeable with duty as applicable at the time of its execution and where any instrument is presented to the Collector after the period specified above, such instrument shall be chargeable with duty as applicable at the time of its presentation and calculated on the basis of market value, wherever applicable, prevalent on the date of its presentation before the Collector and he may certify accordingly.

CHAPTER--IV

Instrument not duly stamped

37. Examination and impounding of instruments.-(1) Every person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, and every person incharge of a public office, except an officer of a police, before whom any instrument, chargeable, in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his functions, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same.

(2) For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him, in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in the State when such instrument was executed or first executed:

Provided that,-

- (a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound, if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under Chapter IX or Part D of Chapter X of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974);
- (b) In the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf.

(3) For the purposes of this section in cases of doubt,--

- (a) The State Government may determine what offices shall be deemed to be public offices; and
- (b) The State Government may determine who shall be deemed to be persons incharge of public offices.

- (4) When a person incharge of a public office, during the course of inspection or otherwise, detects from an instrument or copy thereof or when it appears therefrom to the person referred to in sub-section (1) that the instrument is not duly stamped, such person shall forthwith make a reference to the Collector in that matter.
- (5) The Collector may, suo-moto or on such reference, call for the original instrument for ascertaining whether it is duly stamped and the instrument so produced shall be deemed to have been produced or come before him in the performance of his functions and in case the original instrument is not produced within the period specified by the Collector, he may require the payment of the proper duty or the amount required to make up the same together with the penalty under section 44.

38. Special provisions as to unstamped receipts -- Where any receipt chargeable with a duty not exceeding one rupee is tendered to or produced before any officer unstamped in the course of audit of any public account, such officer may in his discretion, instead of impounding the instrument, require a duly stamped receipt to be substituted therefore.

39. Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, etc. -- No instrument chargeable with duty under this Act shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped:

Provided that,-

- (a) any such instrument shall, subject to all just exceptions, be admitted in evidence on payment of, -

- (i) the duty with which the same is chargeable, or in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped, of the amount required to make up such duty, and
- ¹[(ii) a penalty at the rate of two percent of the amount of the deficient duty per month or part thereof for the period during which the instrument remained insufficiently stamped or twenty five percent of the deficient stamp duty, whichever is higher, but such penalty shall not exceed to two times of the deficient stamp duty.]
- (b) where a contract or agreement of any kind is effected by correspondence consisting of two or more letters and any one of the letters bears the proper stamp; the contract of agreement shall be deemed to be duly stamped.
- (c) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument as evidence in any proceeding in a criminal court, other than a proceedings under chapter IX or Part D of Chapter X of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974).
- (d) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any court when such instrument has been executed by or on behalf of the Government or where it bears the certificate of the Collector as provided by section 36 or any other provision of this Act.
- (e) nothingherein contained shall prevent the admission of a copy of any instrument or of an oral account of the contents of any instrument, if the stamp duty or a deficient portion of the stamp duty and penalty as specified in clause (a) is paid.
- (f) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any court when stamp duty on such instrument has already been paid in advance in the form of a consolidated lump sum.

¹Substituted by Rajasthan Finance Act, 2014 (Act No. 14 of 2014) (w.e.f. 14.7.2014)

(g) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any court when such document has been executed by or on behalf of the Government or where it bears the Certificate of the Collector as provided by section 36 or any other provision of this Act.

40. Admission of instrument, where not to be questioned - Where an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 71, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

41. Admission of improperly stamped instruments- The State Government may make rules providing that, where an instrument bears a stamp of sufficient amount but of improper description, it may on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, be certified to be duly stamped, and any instrument so certified shall then be deemed to have been duly stamped as from the date of its execution.

42. Instruments impounded how dealt with - (1) When the person impounding an instrument under section 37 has by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by section 39 or of duty as provided by section 41, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing, stating the amount of duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.

(2) In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send it in original to the Collector:

Provided that where the person who produced the instrument, or any party interested, is prepared to pay the cost of preparing a copy of the instrument, then:-

(a) an authenticated copy of the instrument shall be got prepared by the person impounding the instrument;

- (b) only the authenticated copy shall be sent to the Collector;
- (c) the Collector shall take action on the authenticated copy as if it were the instrument in original; and
- (d) any certificate to be endorsed with reference to the instrument by the Collector under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 44 or under sub-section(1) of section 46 shall be endorsed on the authenticated copy, ordinarily within 30 days of receipt of the instrument by the Collector and when that copy is received back by the person impounding the instrument that person shall copy the certificate on the original instrument and also authenticate such copy of the certificate.

¹[43. Collector's power to refund penalty under sub-section(1) of section 42.-

Where a copy of an instrument which has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14 is sent to the Collector under sub-section (1) of section 42, he may refund whole penalty paid in respect of such instrument.]

44. Collector's power to stamp instrument impounded--

(1) When the Collector,--

- (a) Impounds any instrument under section 37, or
- (b) receives any instrument sent to him under sub-section(2) of section 42, and such instrument is chargeable with a duty under this Act, he shall adopt the following procedure,-
 - (i) if he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable, as the case may be;
 - (ii) if he is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of proper duty or the amount required to make up the same, together with ¹a penalty at the rate of two percent of the amount of the deficient duty per month or part thereof for the period during which the instrument remained unstamped or insufficiently stamped or twenty five percent of the deficient stamp duty, whichever is higher, but not exceeding two times of the deficient stamp duty:

Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may, if he thinks, fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

- (2) Every certificate under clause (a) of sub-section (1), shall for the purpose of this Act, be conclusive evidence of matters stated therein.
- (3) Where an instrument has been sent to the Collector under sub-section (2) of section 42, the Collector shall, when he has dealt with it as provided by this section, return it to the impounding officer.

45. Instruments unduly stamped by accident--

If any instrument chargeable with duty and not duly stamped under this Act, is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the amount of the proper duty, and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of proper duty or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake or urgent necessity he may, instead of proceeding under section 37 and 44 receive such amount and proceed further as hereinafter provided:

¹Substituted by Rajasthan Finance Act, 2014 (Act No. 14 of 2014) (w.e.f. 14.7.2014).

Provided that where any instrument executed or first executed is brought to the Collector after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution, such instrument shall be chargeable with duty as applicable at the time of its presentation before the Collector under this section.

46. Endorsement of instruments on which duty has been paid under sections 39, 44 or 45 -(1) When the duty and penalty, if any, leviable in respect of any instrument have been paid under section 39, section 44 or section 45, the person admitting such instrument in evidence or the Collector, as the case may be, shall certify by endorsement thereon that the proper duty or, as the case may be, the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each) have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.

(2) Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it has been duly stamped, and shall be delivered on his application in this behalf to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer, impounding it, or to such a person for whom he may direct:

Provided that,--

- (a) no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 39, shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary and has not cancelled such certificate;
- (b) nothing in this section shall affect the order XII, rule 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act No. 5 of 1908).

47. Prosecution for offence against stamp law- The taking of proceedings or the payment of stamp duty, surcharge if any and penalty under this Chapter in respect of any instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the stamp law in respect of such instrument:

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

48. Persons paying duty or penalty may recover the same in certain case-(1)

When any duty or penalty has been paid under section 39, section 41, section 44 or section 45, by any person in respect of any instrument, and by agreement or under the provisions of section 32, or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid.

(2) For the purpose of such recovery any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

(3) Such amount may, if the Court thinks fit, be included in any order as to costs in any suit or proceeding to which such persons are parties and in which such instrument has been tendered in evidence and if the Court does not include the amount in such order, no further proceedings for the recovery of the amount shall be maintainable.

49. Power to refund penalty or excess duty in certain cases-

(1) Where any penalty is paid under section 39 or section 44, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, Stamp duty in excess of that which is legally chargeable has been charged and paid under section 39 or section 44, such authority may upon application in writing made within three months of the order charging the same, refund the excess.

¹(3) Where stamp duty in excess of that which is legally chargeable has been charged or paid on the instrument at the time of the registration of such instrument the State Government or any officer authorized by the State Government by notification may, upon application in writing made within six months from the date of registration, refund the excess.

50. Non-liability for loss of instrument sent under section 42-

(1) If any instrument sent to the Collector under sub-section (2) of section 42 is lost, destroyed or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction or damage.

(2) When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same, may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first mentioned person and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

51. Instrument undervalued, how to be valued-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Registration Act, 1908 (Act No. 16 of 1908) and the rules made thereunder as in force in Rajasthan where, in the case of any instrument relating to an immovable property chargeable with an advalorem duty on the market value of the property as set forth in the instrument, the registering officer has, while registering the instrument, reasons to believe that the market value of the property has not been truly set forth in the instrument, he may either before or after registering the instrument, send it in original to the Collector for taking action under sub-section (3).

(2) When through mistake or otherwise any instrument which is undervalued and not duly stamped is registered under the Registration Act, 1908, the registering officer may call for the original instrument from the party and, after giving the party liable to pay stamp duty an opportunity of being heard and recording the reasons in writing and furnishing a copy thereof to value of the property, and if after such examination, he has reason to believe that the market value of such property has not been truly set forth in the instrument, he may determine in accordance with the procedure provided in sub-section (3) the market value and the amount of stamp duty, if any, payable thereon together with a penalty at the rate of two percent of the amount of the deficient duty per month or part thereof for the period during which the instrument remained unstamped or insufficiently stamped or twenty five percent of the deficient stamp duty, whichever is higher, but not exceeding two times of the deficient stamp duty, which shall be payable by the person liable to pay the stamp duty and penalty.

(6) Where for any reason the original document called for by the Collector under sub-section (5) is not produced or cannot be produced, the Collector may, after recording the reasons for its not production, call for a certified copy of the entries of the document from the registering officer concerned and exercise the power conferred on him under sub-section (5).

(7) For the purpose of inquiries under this section, the Collector shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses. Including the parties to the instrument or any of them, and to compel the production of documents by the same means, and so far as may be in the same manner, as is provided in the case of civil court under Code of Civil Procedure 1908 (Act 5 of 1908).

52. Rectification of mistakes-- With a view to rectifying any mistake apparent from the record, the Collector may amend any order made by him under this Act, within ¹[two years] of the date of order either on his own motion or on the mistake being brought to his notice by person affected by the order:

¹Substituted by Rajasthan Finance Act, 2016 (Act No. 5 of 2016) (w.e.f. 09.04.16).

Provided that if any such amendment is likely to affect any person prejudicially, it shall not be made without giving to such person reasonable opportunity of being heard.

¹52-A. Reopening of ex parte orders--

(1) Where an order has been passed by the Collector ex parte under this Act, the aggrieved person may apply to the Collector for reopening of such order within thirty days from the date of communication of such order to him on the grounds that he did not receive the notice or summons issued to him in the matter or that he was prevented by sufficient cause from complying with any notice or summons issued to him.

(2) If the Collector is satisfied with the ground specified in the application made under sub-section (1), he shall reopen the ex parte order and after hearing the aggrieved person may pass such order as he may think proper in the circumstances of the matter within three months from the date of receipt of the application under sub-section (1).

²52-B. Revision by the Inspector General of Stamp.- (1) The Inspector General of Stamp may suo motu or otherwise, call for and examine the record of any proceeding under Chapter III, IV and V of this Act, and if he considers that any order passed therein by Collector is either erroneous or prejudicial to the interest of the State revenue, he may, after having made or after having caused to be made such enquiry as he considers necessary, and after having given to the party concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard, pass such order or issue such direction as he deems proper under the circumstances of the case.

(2) No order or direction under sub-section (1) shall be passed or issued by the Inspector General of Stamp after expiry of a period of five years from the date on which the order sought to be revised was passed."

Explanation-- The certificate of the Collector under section 36 that the full duty with which an instrument is chargeable has been paid is an impressed stamp within the meaning of this section.

59. Application for relief under section 58 when to be made- The application for relief under section 58 shall be made within the following periods, that is to say,--

- (i) in the case mentioned in clause (d) (vi), within two months of the date of the instrument;
- (ii) in the case of a stamped paper on which no instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto within six months after the stamp has been spoiled;
- (iii) in the case of a stamped paper in which an instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed.

Provided that-

- (a) when, the spoiled instrument has been for sufficient reasons sent out of India, the application may be made within six months after it has been received back in India;

(b) When, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted cannot be given upto be cancelled within the aforesaid period, the application may be made within six months after the date of execution of the substituted instrument.

60. Allowance in case of printed forms no longer required by corporations- ¹"The Collector" may, without limit of time, make allowance for stamped papers used for printed form of instruments by any banker or by any incorporated company or other body corporate, if for any sufficient reason such forms have ceased to be required by the said banker, company or body corporate:

Provided that such authority is satisfied that the duty in respect of such stamped papers has been duly paid.

61. Allowance for misused stamps- (a) When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument chargeable with duty, a stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of a greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty; or

(b) When any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under section 15, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of the provisions of section 13. The Collector may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument or, if it not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

62. Allowance for spoiled or misused stamps how to be made-- In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps, the Collector may give in lieu thereof,-

(a) other stamps of the same description and value; or

(b) if required and he thinks fit, stamps of any other description to be of the same amount in value; or

(c) at his discretion, the same value in money deducting ten paise

for each rupee or fraction of a rupee.

63. Allowance for stamps not required for use-- When any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps which have not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money, deducting ten paise for each rupee or portion of a rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction,--

(a) that such stamp or stamps were purchased by such person with a bonafide intention to use them; and

(b) that he had paid the full price thereof; and

(c) that they were so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the date on which they were so delivered:

Provided that, where the person is a licensed vendor of stamps, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, make the repayment of the sum actually paid by the vendor without any such deduction as aforesaid.

¹ 63-A. Invalidation of stamps and saving.- Notwithstanding anything contained in section 58,61,62 & 63-

(a) any stamp which has been purchased on or after the date of commencement of the Rajasthan Finance Act, 2013 (Act No. 12 of 2013) (hereinafter referred to as "the said date") shall be used or presented for claiming allowance within a period of six months from the date of purchase. Any such stamp, which has not been used or no allowance has been claimed in respect thereof within the period of six months from the date of purchase, shall be rendered invalid;

- (b) any stamp which has been purchased but has not been used or no allowance has been claimed in respect thereof before the said date, may be used or presented for claiming the allowance under the relevant provisions of the Act within a period of six months from the said date. The stamp which has not been used or presented within the aforesaid period of six months shall be rendered invalid.
